

SELF-GUIDED CLEAN-UP

In celebration of National Forest Week (July 12-18), the NFF would like to invite you to get outside to experience and give back to your National Forests. Grab some friends and colleagues and head on out for a Forest clean up.

1. Organize a small group of friends and/or colleagues.

2. Pick up your supplies

- Trash bags
- Gloves
- Hand sanitizer
- Bucket and bag for dog poo

3. Get to work and have some fun outside!

4. Share your experience with
#NationalForestWeek and tag
@nationalforests on social media

A few tips for a successful event

- Look for a front country trailhead
- Find your place: National Forest, local park, or block
- Keep your group size small
- Be mindful of COVID-19 protocols and recreate responsibly
- Pack it out: dispose of trash off site

Track your results!

- Bags of trash removed
- Number of volunteers
- Hours spent at the event
- Most unusual thing found

Contact

Mindy Crowell
mcrowell@nationalforests.org

To find a forest near you, submit your results, and learn more visit nationalforestweek.org.